

Donald Mark Longman

11/27/1959 ~ 10/14/2020

Donald Mark Longman passed away at his home on October 14, 2020. He was born November 27, 1959 to Sue Ellen Longman and Donald Merlin Longman. Mark went by his middle name for family and work colleagues, but to friends, he was “duck” or “woodduck”. Mark had a long career in carpentry where he traveled all over the United States. He was preceded in death by his father, and both sets of grandfathers. He is survived by his mother (Sue Ellen Longman), daughter (Jenny Longman Scott), son in law (Joshua Scott), sisters (Terri Naylor & Deborah Repak), brother (Lane Longman), granddaughter (Hailey Scott), numerous nieces, nephews, grandnieces and grandnephews. The Longman family is extremely grateful for the outpouring of love and support. Mark didn’t want a service so therefore; the family has decided to plan a private gathering at a later time.
