

Brenda Fay Wilson Pierce

July 24, 1951 ~ April 2, 2021

Brenda was born July 24, 1951 in Norman, Oklahoma to Alford B. Wilson and Aggie F. Wilson. She moved to Livingston Parish as a child and was a resident of Denham Springs. Her battle with cancer ended on April 3, 2021, when Jesus completely and forever healed her and took her home to glory. She is survived by her husband, soul mate, and one true love, Luzon P. Pierce. Her brothers Terry A. Wilson and wife Jackie of Denham Springs, and Wiley C. Wilson and wife Kendra of Montgomery Texas. Two sons, Charles Watts of Denham Springs, and Aaron Watts and wife Michell of Livingston. Grandchildren, Kayla, Caleb, Justin and Garrett. Brenda was an amazing wife, mother, sister and friend. She was a loving and doting grandmother. Most importantly, Brenda was an example of the Love of Jesus to all she met. She loved her immediate and extended family fully, and without reservation. Brenda was beautiful inside and out, and lived her life with grace and humility. A Celebration of Life will be held in her memory at Northside Baptist Church in Denham Springs LA on Saturday April 10th at 11:00 am. In lieu of flowers, Brenda requested that donations be made to St. Jude.
