

Robert Matthew Simpson

August 27, 1975 – October 13, 2021

Robert Matthew “Matt” Simpson, 46, passed away on October 13, 2021 at his home in Denham Springs, LA. He was a devoted family man, loving father, husband, and brother, along with being an avid “candy man”. If there was something mechanical, he wanted to play with it, break it, then fix it again. He was born August 27, 1975 to parents, William Larry Simpson Sr. and Sally Louise Wing Simpson of 40 years. He is survived by his wife, Toni Simpson of 11 years; mother, Sally Louise Wing Simpson; brothers, Brian Simpson and wife Amanda Simpson, along with Bill Simpson and wife Natalie Simpson; daughters, Madison Simpson, Morgan Simpson, Hope Crawford, Megan White and husband Dustin White; many nieces and nephews, and his furry companions, Bella, Sadie, Shortie, and most importantly, his very loved and spoiled best friend “Dude Money.” He is preceded in death by his father William Larry Simpson Sr. Pastor Bud Chandler from Immanuel Baptist Church will be performing the service. Jeremy Crowell, Dustin White, Jordan Forbus, Stephen Halphen, Brady Riche, and Richard McGlone will be the pallbearers for the service. Visitation will be held at Seale Funeral Home, 1720 S Range Ave, Denham Springs, Monday, October 18, 2021 from 12:00 – 2:00PM with service at 2:00 and burial service to follow.
