She was preceded in death by her grandmother Shirlen McDaniel and grandfathers Ronald Volentine and Larry Willcutt.

Elizabeth had a smile and joy that was contagious. She was a tiny, spunky, strong willed, humorous little lady. We all adored her so much and are thankful for the 27 years God blessed us all with her life. We had her much longer than doctors ever expected, and we praise God for that. Elizabeth enjoyed music, movies, walks outside and going to church. We especially enjoyed watching her in church and seeing the joy on her face while the music played and clapping for the preacher. This we know for certain about God and Elizabeth Marie McDaniel: "God created her inmost being; He knit her together in her mother's womb. We praise you because she is fearfully and wonderfully made; His works are wonderful; we know that full well. Her frame was not hidden from you when she was made in the secret place, when she was woven together in the depths of the earth. His eyes say her unformed body; all the days ordained for her were written in His book before one of them came to be.” Psalms 139:13-17 personalized.

Pallbearers will be; Carlos Flores, Timothy Neatherly, Mark Luebking, and Blake Betz. Timothy Keck, Michael Luebking, and Matthew Keck will serve as honorary pallbearers.
