

Harold Leron LeBlanc

Harold Leron LeBlanc went to be with the Lord on December 11, 2021 at the age of 82. Harold loved the Lord as his personal Savior and served him his whole life. He had a beautiful voice and at 12 years old began to sing solos for his church congregation in New Iberia, La while growing up there. He graduated from New Iberia High School. Harold loved to cook and fish. He was interested and participated in football, basketball and track. He was discharged from the United States Air Force in 1965 after serving a term in Africa. He then went back to school and earned his degree from the University of Louisiana at Lafayette on May 28, 1967. Harold is survived by his wife Dorothy Crowson LeBlanc, Children; Robert Leron (Sharon) Leblanc and Teri LeBlanc (Michael) Sanbohe, Grandchildren; Cole LeBlanc, Kaylee LeBlanc, Garrett Sandbothe, Taylor Sandbothe and Elizabeth Sandbothe, a Great Granchild; Carson LeBlanc. He is preceded in death by his parents Harold Joseph LeBlanc and Gladys Horrell LeBlanc.