

Darrin Lynn Cook

February 24, 1972 – January 30, 2022

Darrin Lynn Cook, born February 24, 1972, in Alexandria, LA, died peacefully and joined his Lord and Savior on January 30, 2022. Darrin was preceded in death by his father, Harvey Wayne Cook, Sr. He is survived by his daughter Ariel Cook, former wife, Lisa Aranyosi, and his mother, Brenda Cook, by his siblings, Harvey Cook and Christie Bradford, and by nieces and nephew, Chelsea Hughes (Cullen), Katie Ferrell, and Robert Ferrell. He is also survived by his best friend, Rachel Wiese. Darrin retired from the Louisiana Department of Public Safety and Corrections after 20 years of service. While working for the Office of State Police, Darrin was awarded the Louisiana Emergency Service Ribbon for his participation in preserving public safety and peace. This is the epitome of Darrin's compassion, service, and love for others. The family extends an invitation to you to join them as they remember and honor Darrin at Seale Funeral Home Denham Springs on Sunday, February 6, 2022, for visitation at 3 pm and service at 4pm. There will be no burial service.
