August 15, 1973 ~ February 4, 2022

Amy Cecile Gaudet Lanclos August 15, 1973 ~ February 4, 2022 Amy passed away on Friday, February 4, 2022 at the age of 48. To those of us who really knew Amy, to know her was to love her. Her beautiful smile and big hazel eyes would warm your heart in an instant. Amy had the biggest heart ever and was compassionate, happy, gentle and loving. To those of us who really knew Amy, we also know she would never want to be remembered for her struggles with addiction and mental health issues. Despite strained relationships with family and friends, Amy will be remembered by those of us who loved her as a mother, a daughter, a sister, an aunt, a cousin, a niece, a granddaughter. She had been so very artistically blessed since her youth with art being a hobby which progressed into her self-taught, jaw-dropping cake decorating skills or her fabulously decorative wreaths. She was a lover of all pets, especially her Schnauzer Alex and her cat Elliott. Amy was a graduate of Brusly High School Class of 1992 and graduated from Medical Training College receiving a certification in Massage Therapy. Amy is survived by her husband, Jay Lanclos; Son, Mason Gaudet; mother, Sharon Diane Cutrer Gaudet; father, Thomas "Yogi" Gaudet; older sister, Tracey Gaudet Lewis and two nieces, Abby and Anna Grace Lewis; younger sister, Tori Gaudet Daigrepoint and husband, Matthew Daigrepoint and niece Maci and nephew Gabe, Godmother Donna Rivet Whitney and Godfather John Gaudet. . She is also survived by numerous aunts, uncles, cousins and life-long friends. Amy was preceded in death by her namesake, great grandmother Cecile Brown Boudreaux; maternal grandparents, Lenford L. Cutrer and his wife Irene Taylor Cutrer; paternal grandparents, Ulysses J. Gaudet and his wife, Lillian Boudreaux Gaudet, and aunt Nancy Gaudet Hamilton and husband Terry Hamilton and cousins
