

James Bradley Boring

September 2, 1966 ~ February 8, 2022

James Bradley Boring, 55, of Baton Rouge, LA, passed away Tuesday, February 8, 2022. Brad was an avid hunter and fisherman and loved the outdoors. He also had a very creative side that he loved to share with his family and friends. He could make the most innovative things from wood design to turtle shell lamps and floral arrangements to any object placed in front of him. He was a loving husband, father, grandfather, son, brother and friend and will be missed by all who knew him. Visitation will be held at Seale Funeral Home, Denham Springs, Saturday, February 12, from 12 p.m. until service at 2 p.m. Burial will follow in Plains Memorial Cemetery, Zachary. He is survived by his wife, Ann Sardisco Boring; children, Hunter Boring, Chance Boring, Landon Boring, Brianna Boring and her son, Brennan; stepchildren, Lauren Naquin (Alex) and their daughter, Sophia, Joshua Sardisco; parents, James W. and Faye Ellen Boring; sisters, Gina Boring and her children, Taylor, Hank, and Sarah Ellen, and Angel Boring Sharp (Ken) and their children, Chase, Kendoll, Nathan, and Cruz; as well as many other relatives and friends. He was preceded in death by his brother, Lawrence Jason Boring. Please share your condolences at .
