“Mawmaw Betty” was a native of Walker, LA and lived there for all of her 90 years except for a few months just after her marriage in 1953. She graduated from Walker High School and was active in the reunions of her class. She was also an active member of Walker Baptist Church and poured her life into developing the faith of the children of the church. Betty loved children, both her own and others, and wanted more than anything else to see them come to faith in Christ. She was a firm believer in the words of Christ to “bring the children to me” (Mt. 19:14 KJV). She worked for over 40 years promoting children’s programs by teaching missions through the Girls in Action classes and her activities in Vacation Bible School and Sunday School. She also taught for many years as a Teacher's Paraprofessional at Walker Elementary and touched many lives with her faithful witness.

Betty's love for her family was second only to her love of Jesus. She read the Bible, believed the Bible, lived the Bible, witnessed to others, and was a great prayer warrior. Her greatest desire was for her relatives, children, grandchildren, and great-grandchildren to know Christ, love Him, commit their lives to Him, and live for Him. In her prayer life, she prayed for her friends and family daily and looked forward to the day that we would all be together in Heaven.

Betty's favorite things all revolved around her family and her faith. On holidays, she wanted to see her family. On days in between, she also wanted to see her family. Her introduction to Smartphones, Facetime, WhatsApp and email were some of the best things that ever happened for her as she was able to see pictures of loved ones, talk to them, post messages, etc. - and she did regularly. She was a "shutterbug" and everyone understood that if they visited "Mawmaw Bet", they were getting their pictures taken- it just was a fact of life. Consequently, her home was filled with pictures of her loved ones over four generations.

Betty is greatly missed by her family, but there is also an underlying joy in knowing that she is no longer suffering with illness and is in the presence of all those she loved best. The sparkle in her eyes when she sees her mother and father and sisters and the face of her Lord will be something to behold. Betty was a wonderful, loving mother and a faithful and loving wife to her husband. All will miss her greatly, but are joyful that she will be hearing those words, "Well done thou good and faithful servant; enter into the joy of your Lord". (Mt 25:23 KJV).
