

David George Shultz

We mourn the passing of David George Shultz, Sr., a loving husband/best friend, father, grandfather, and great-grandfather on June 10, 2022 with his loving wife by his side and his devoted dog "Beau". Dave was born in Fort Wayne, Indiana on April 15, 1947 and raised in the heart of Baton Rouge where he attended Baton Rouge High School. Dave served in the US Army (Vietnam Era). Afterwards beginning his career as a painter with Bankston painting company, he also worked at Granberries Guns which eventually lead him to serving his community with the EBR Sheriff's Office. While at EBR Sherriff's Dave served in many capacities, not to mention many accomplishments achieved through his career such as FBI School of Narcotics, Infantry Small unit tactics, sniper school, sig, smith and Wesson, rugger, Which Eventually led to him being the firearms instructor for the EBR Sherriff's Department. Dave was a man with a passion for the great outdoors, such as traveling, fishing, camping, and riding his Harley with his wife. His hobbies included re-loading and being a member of "single action shooting society" (where he was known as fairshake) and black powder matches, where he won numerous awards. David was an avid LSU and saints fan. He was also known for his culinary skills, he enjoyed seeing people complimenting him on his gumbo, etoufee's and other cajun dishes. David is survived by his wife/best friend Lisha McCarney Shultz, two sons David Shultz(Stacey) and Troy Shultz(Kendra), as well as 6 grandkids and 5 great-grandkids. He is preceded in death by his mother Lois Douthitt Henney and father George Shultz. Services will take place Friday June 17, 2022 at Seale Funeral Home in Denham Springs with visitation starting at 6:00 PM, a 7:30 PM Memorial service and visitation resuming until 8:30 PM.
