

Christopher Scott Sprecher

Christopher Scott Sprecher was a loving husband, father, son, brother, mentor, and friend. He left this world suddenly on September 24, 2022, at age 47.

Scott was born on June 30, 1975, in St. Charles, MO. He joined the US Marine Corps after high school and served his country for four years. He married the love of his life, Lanna Barnes Sprecher, in 1996, and together they had three beautiful children: Ethan Scott, Ian Paul, and Sarah Grace. Scott went on to complete his associates degree in Civil Drafting and worked as a contract manager at Deltech Monomers.

Everyone who met Scott knew his heart for the Lord. He loved reading his Bible daily, fishing and hunting; singing worship music; sports; serving the military, the Discovery community, and his Healing Place Church home; and most of all, Jesus Christ, his precious wife, cherished children, and family.

He is preceded in death by his father, Robert Paul Sprecher, and his grandmothers, Johnnie B. Johnson and Muddy Oliver. Scott is survived by his wife; children; mother, Linda Dianne Weinreis; his brothers, Kenneth Sprecher and Trenton Sprecher; and many in-laws, cousins, nieces, and nephews.

Services are being held on Thursday, September 29, 2022, from 5-8 pm, at Seale Funeral Home in Denham Springs. Visitation will be held on Friday, September 30, 2022, at Healing Place Church in Denham Springs from 10-11 am, with funeral services following.

Flowers can be sent to Seale Funeral Home in Denham Springs. Monetary donations can be made in Scott's name to the Til Valhalla Project.
