

James “Jamie” Clyde Norman

James “Jamie” Clyde Norman, 63, of Denham Springs, LA, was called to Paradise Friday, January 20, 2023. Jamie served and defended his country in the United State Marine Corps and did so, proudly. Jamie loved his nieces and nephews and was always the “cool uncle”. He was laid back, easy going, and always fun to be around. He will be greatly missed by all those who’s lives he touched. He is survived by his nieces and nephews, Stefanie Jackson (Bobby), Dax Ballard (Samantha), Getia Nuredin, and Tasnim Nuredin; stepmother, Gayle Norman; stepbrother, Cody LeBlanc; and numerous great-nieces and great-nephews, including Kloe, Bethany, Shiloh, Thomas, and Victoria, whom he adored. He was preceded in death by his parents, Joseph and Hazel Norman; and siblings, Joseph Jr. and Cathy. Visitation will be held Tuesday, January 24, at Seale Funeral Home from 10 a.m. until service at 11 a.m. Burial with Military Honors will follow in Evergreen Memorial Park, Denham Springs.
