

Clara Ruth Haley Ouber

Clara Ruth Haley Ouber of Baton Rouge Louisiana went home to Jesus on March, 16th, 2023 at the age of 93. It's only fitting that she passed on 3/16, one of her favorite scriptures from the Bible and as a devout Baptist :

“For God so loved the world that He gave his one and only Son, that whoever believes in Him shall not perish but have eternal life.”

Clara Ruth was born October 3rd 1929 in Natchez Mississippi. She moved to Baton Rouge at at the young age of 2. She met her husband JB Ouber while they were both in high school and they married in 1947. They had two daughters, Cheree and Dina. Clara Ruth was a dedicated wife and loving mother. She enjoyed flower arranging and drove a school bus for East Baton Rouge Parish until she retired. Clara Ruth was active in the church and she was a Sunday school teacher. Throughout her entire life, she held an unwavering faith in Jesus, which she shared with those who surrounded her.

Clara Ruth is preceded in death by her husband JB Ouber, her daughters Cheree Golden and Dina Hayes, and grandson John Thomas Hayes.

She is survived by her grand children Cal Madere and Kelly Galloway. Great grand children Jordan Auxt, Ian Madere, Evan Madere, Ava Madere, Erik Galloway, Kristian Galloway, Reece Hayes and Sullivan Hayes. Also survived by remaining Ouber family members BB, Jimmy Dale, and Flo Jordan. And family friend Lana Tate. Clara Ruth also has 3 great-great grand children and counting.

The family would like to thank and acknowledge the kindness and dedication of Flo Jordan, Lana Tate, Craig Schaap of Life Source and Bridget Horn and the staff at Landmark South Nursing and Rehabilitation Center.

She will be laid to rest beside her beloved husband JB at a grave side ceremony at

New Red Oak Cemetery in Livingston Parish on Saturday March 18th at 10am.

Psalm 91:11

“For He will give His angels charge concerning you, to guard you in all your ways.”
