

Leslie R. Felder

Leslie Randolph Felder, 84, a lifelong resident of Denham Springs died on September 11, 2023, at his home peacefully. He was the son of Benji and Nettie Felder of Denham Springs. Leslie is survived by his son Michael Felder, daughter Vickie Wilburn, and husband Donald, Grandchildren Christopher Felder, Drew Felder with great-grandchildren Keegan and Oliver, Zachary Wilburn, and wife Mary Margaret, and their two children. Also survived by brother Bennie Felder and his wife Brenda and sister Betty Burgess and her husband Donald. He was preceded in death by his parents and his two other grandchildren, Jessica Felder (Michael) and Chaz Wilburn (Donald), and the love of his life, Brenda whom he was married to for 61 years at her death. After Ethel Corp closed its doors, Leslie became a master carpenter building custom homes all over Livingston and East Baton Rouge parish and sometimes beyond for around 50 years. He had a passion for woodworking. Leslie never met a stranger and would do anything for anyone if needed. Since the passing of his wife Brenda, Leslie was spoiled and very well taken care of and never needed for anything by his children and grandchildren. Thanks to all at Clarity Hospice for their assistance and guidance during this time. Visitation will be at Seale Funeral Home on Thursday, September 14 from 5-8 and will continue Friday, September 15 with visitation from 9-10 with a service to follow at 10 conducted by Rev. Rhett Major. His burial will be at Denham Springs Cemetery. Please sign our online registry book.
