

William “Rabbit” Stovall

Born on November 28, 1962, William Thomas Stovall, Sr, known by all as ‘Rabbit’, passed away surrounded by family on Thursday, October 12, 2023. He is survived by his wife and love of his life, Mary Gremillion Stovall. Also survived by his children, Aaron Stovall and wife Chrandia, TJ Stovall and wife Tommi, Angela Hedrick and husband Chad, Matthew Gremillion, Aaron Gremillion, and Thomas Korkosz. Rabbit is also survived by his grandchildren, whom he adored: Derek, Jesse, Iris, Reece, Karson, Anniston, and Hannah.

He was preceded in death by his parents, William Floyd and Patricia Stovall, brother, Lummie Stovall Sr, and sister, Diane Stovall Hopkins.

In life, Rabbit loved his family with his whole heart. He and Mary remained lovebirds throughout their 26 years of marriage.

He loved to hunt and fish and was a crane operator by trade. He had numerous friends in the community and mentored many throughout his career.

Special thanks to the nurses and aides of St. Joseph Hospice for the care, compassion, and support to Rabbit and the family during his last days. We will be forever grateful.

Funeral Services will be held at St. Alphonsus Liguori Catholic Church on Thursday, October 26th. Visitation to begin at 9:30 am, followed by the funeral mass at 11:00am.
