

Randall Kurt Johnson

Randall Kurt Johnson of Bluff Creek Louisiana, went to be with Our Lord and Savior on January 3, 2024. Born on January 27, 1963 to Georgia Genola Johnson, he passed away peacefully in his sleep at his home in Walker, LA at the age of 60. A truck driver by trade having traveled seeing the world while earning a living. Collecting an extensive hot sauce collection from his journeys.

Randall loved to fish, rabbit and squirrel hunt, had a warm spot in his heart for English Bulldogs saying they had a harder life, younger life expectancy, their wrinkles and character was like a frumpy grumpy old man - yet they were happy, loveable all the time. He loved older rare vehicles and during his lifetime owned many which he drove daily as his main vehicles including a Plymouth Trail Duster truck, a Dodge Coronet and more. His fondest memories were every summer at Chicot State Park with family fishing and making memories together and trips fishing at Grand Isle.

He carried a strong bond and love for family, heritage, history of generations past loving his Italian, French and Irish heritage. Randall had no children of his own however he was Uncle, Unc, Great Uncle and Big Brother to so many along his life journey, as well as, Husband to Julie Kimball and Jena Green Johnson. His love for his family ran deep and true.

He is survived by his Sister Lori L Johnson, Bluff Creek-Clinton, LA, Brother Ricky Whitehead, Clinton, LA, his best friend in the world Ronnie Bottoms, owner of Swamp Daddy's Kettle Corn, Baton Rouge, LA. Nephews James Kent, Chad Whitehead, Jamie Whitehead, Micheal White. Nieces BreAnna Kent, Haley Johnson, Shelley Whitehead, Te-Jo Adams and Memoree Troxler. Great nieces, nephews, cousins.

Proceeded in death: Grandparents Isom Isiah John Genola and Anna Forbes Genola, Edward Johnson Sr and Olar Bennet Johnson. Parents Georgia Mae Genola Johnson Mitchell, D. L. Johnson. Brothers Robin Keith "T-Bear" Whitehead, Lenis "Darren" Johnson and Jason L Johnson, and neice Chelsea Whitehead.
