

Patricia “Ann” Spring Hebert

PATRICIA “ANN” SPRING HEBERT

DENHAM SPRINGS- Ann Spring Hebert, 78, passed away peacefully in her sleep at her home in Denham Springs on January 12, 2024. She was born May 5, 1945, in McComb, MS, daughter to Wilford B. and Montez Smith Spring. Ann graduated Denham Springs High School, class of 1963. She attended Southeastern Louisiana University from 1963 - 1966. She married her high school sweetheart, Nolan “Ronny” L. Hebert Jr. in Denham Springs on May 7, and settled in Denham Springs. They celebrated 58 years of marriage in May.

Ann was a social worker for the State of LA for close to 30 years. She also enjoyed shopping for clothes and antiques. She opened one of the first antique stores in downtown Denham Springs, now known as the “Antique Village.” She was also an artist with oil paints and watercolors. But taking care of her family was the joy of her life.

In addition to her parents, she is preceded by her mother-in-law, Lois Lamm Bennett; one sister, Janice S. Gremillion; brother-in-law, Hart “Pete” Gremillion. Surviving in addition to her husband, Ronny Hebert, her daughter, Tricia Hebert Cambre and her husband, Alton of Port Vincent; two grandchildren, Mallory D. Cambre and Lonyn C. Cambre, one great- grandson, Blake J. Cambre; one sister-in-law, Gayle B. Martin, and her husband, Butch. Many nieces and nephews.

Service will be held at Seale Funeral Home on Wednesday, January 17. Visitation 1:30-3:00 p.m. Funeral service begins at 3:00p.m and burial will follow in Evergreen Memorial Park.