

Jennifer Amanda Brown

Our Queen Bee has gone on to her heavenly hive that God has prepared for her. Jennifer Amanda Brown, born February 6, 1974 in Lake Charles, LA, went to meet her Savior on Monday, December 18, 2023 at just 49 years young.

Jennifer was the loving wife of John Brown, whom she enjoyed traveling with and the entertainment in her Rodeo of Life. She is the passionate mother of Lane Stanford and MacKenzie Stanford. She was also gifted with McKenzie (Landon) Cook, Cameron (Joey) Dixon, Kirby (Brandon) Boudreaux, and John Westley Middlebrooks when she married John. Her bee-utiful heart was poured out to her God, family, animals (including her favorite red heeler, Charlie Brown), community, livestock, and beekeeping. Her hard work, generosity, forward thinking, and dedication influenced many people and will have a lasting impact on our hearts and minds.

She is preceded in death by her biological father, Eugene Dripps and mother, Maxie Hauser Sonnier; step-brother, Everett Sonnier; and nephew, Quentin Habetz.

She is also survived by her adopted father, Kerney (Janice) Sonnier; brother, Jason (Alma) Dripps; sister, Julie (Paul) Habetz; sister, Jessica Sonnier. Nanny Jenny's bee-loved soul will be missed by her colony of nieces and nephews and grandchildren.

Jennifer served as the President of the Louisiana Beekeeper Association, and was instrumental in starting the St. Helena Bee Club, the Tangi Bee Club, the Washington Bee Club, and the Hathaway High School Apiary in Jefferson Davis Parish. She was also a member of the American Quarter Horse Association.

A special thank you to the worker bees who generously cared for her during her medical time of need, Aunt Dana Hauser, and her friends, Staci and Jennifer.

Donations in her honor may be made to the LBA at 210 Meadowlark Drive, Jefferson, TX 75657 or the AQHA, PO Box 32111, Amarillo TX 79120. Please make payable to: Professional Horsemen Endowment Fund . You can add that this is in memory of Jennifer Brown Please share your condolences at .

Celebration of life service will take place Friday March 15, 2024 at Sunlight Baptist Church in Franklinton(18184 Sunlight Rd.) with visitation from 9-10:30 and service starting at 10:30 conducted by Brother Leroy.
