March 8, 1978 ~ March 12, 2024

Brandon Rayborn AKA Elvis

Charles Brandon Rayborn, age 46, passed away March 12, 2024, at his home in Livingston, Louisiana. He was born at North Oaks Hospital in Hammond, Louisiana on March 8, 1978, and a native and lifelong resident of Livingston. He worked in the Petro chemical industry and was currently employed by Brand Safway. He held numerous positions throughout the years, from lead carpenter to quality control and multiple supervisor roles. This allowed him to travel to various states. He was well known in the scaffolding industry as a top-notch scaffold builder. He recently developed a passion for painting camouflage after collecting baseball cards in his youth. Brandon was a beloved son, loyal brother, and a proud father of his two beautiful daughters that he loved deeply. He was the life of the party and enjoyed hanging out with family and friends around bonfires sharing stories and listening to music. He was called Bubba by his many nieces and nephews and called Elvis by his friends and co-workers. Brandon was an avid outdoorsman who enjoyed his quiet time in the woods hunting and exploring. He had a special bond that was unique to each niece and nephew. Everyone has fond memories of him riding horses. Brandon is survived by his daughters Journey and Madison Rayborn; mother and stepfather Karla and Billy White; grandmother Earline Ratcliff Miller Troha; sisters, Heather (Thomas) Baygents, Amie (Garett) Ware, and Ashley (Jake) Artigue; brothers, Richie (Rhonda) Rayborn, Coby (Jeannie) Rayborn; nieces and nephews, Ryan, Megan, Shelby, Larra, Chelsey, Chris, Cassie, Trent, Emma, MaKayla, Logan, Korben, MaKenzie, Jace, Colten, J.J., Kayliee, Kylie, Gunner, Kohen; great nieces and nephews, Saddie, Axel, Saylor, Calin, Justie, Charley, Greyson, Paisley, Ashton, Beaux, Tatum, Liam; Stepbrother Chris (Dylea) White and an extended family of many cousins, aunts and uncles. He
