Amanda Renee Brown Holden, beloved wife, mother, daughter, and friend passed away May 26, 2024 as a result of a motorcycle accident in Mississippi. Throughout her life, Amanda enjoyed riding horses, fishing, playing sports, cooking, riding motorcycles, participating in the Special Olympics with her daughter and, her favorite, enjoying time with family and friends.

She attended Northeast and Central High Schools and went on to work at several different establishments throughout her adulthood, making new friends all along the way. The job that she was most proud of though was caring for her family. The titles of wife and mother were her most cherished ones.
