

Riley Noel Hooper

Her majesty, Queen Riley Noel Hooper of Denham Springs, Louisiana gracefully passed away on the fourth day of July in the year of our Lord 2024. Born on the twenty-ninth day of December in the year of our Lord 2006 in Frederick, Maryland, her royal highness personified unwavering kindness, immeasurable happiness, and the perfect amount of sass. During her remarkable 17 year reign, Queen Riley embodied dignity, grace, and unwavering dedication to her duties of smiling, eating ice cream, taking baths, and rocking out to Taylor Swift.

Her royal highness is survived by her parents Jeffrey Hooper and Kelly Hooper, brothers Jordan Hooper and Logan Hooper, sisters Kamryn Hooper, Scarlett Hooper, and Taylor Hooper. Queen Riley was also surrounded by aunts, uncles, cousins and grandparents who loved her dearly.

She is preceded in death by her grandparents Brenda and Vincent Hotard. The queen's royal carriage will be placed to rest by pallbearers Mark Hotard, Jordan Hooper, Kent Hooper, Neal Hooper, Curtis Hotard, and Eric Dixon.

In lieu of flowers, her royal highness kindly requests that any minions wishing to make donations do so to the International Rett Syndrome Foundation and by also respectfully jamming to Taylor Swift in honor of her majesty. The Queen's family wishes to abundantly thank all the teachers, caretakers, and medical professionals who have proven loyal to Riley throughout her reign.

Visitation will be held at The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter Day Saints located at 25367 Riverton Avenue in Denham Springs, Louisiana on Monday, July 8 at 9:30 am to 11:00 am. Service will be at 11:00 am following visitation. Burial will immediately follow at Evergreen Memorial Gardens located at 1710 S Range Ave, Denham Springs, LA 70726.
