

Obry Gerard Beaudion

Obry Gerard Beaudion passed at his Baton Rouge home on September 4, 2024. He was born in Shreveport, Louisiana on August 9, 1967 and grew up in Lake Charles, Louisiana, eventually working as a manager in the hospitality business. He enjoyed spending his time playing video games and watching football and baseball, especially the Houston Astros. Obry was also a big fan of watching Stargate on the tv whenever it was on. He had no greater joy in life than spending time with his grandchild, Daniel, and his dog, Jack.

He is survived by his son Davion Garrett, grandchildren Daniel Garrett and Aiden McCaleb, and sister Lori Hughes (Chris Hughes).

He is preceded in death by father Vivian “Bud” Beaudion and mother Dolores F. Beaudion.
