

Tracy B. Lee

Tracy B. Lee, 54, of Baton Rouge, LA, passed away on September 11, 2024. Tracy was a beloved wife, mother, aunt, and cherished friend to many.

Tracy dedicated 17 years of her career to ExxonMobil, excelling in roles across shipping and receiving, operations, firefighting, and security. Her professional life reflected her commitment and resilience.

As a devoted follower of Christ, Tracy lived a life characterized by her deep faith and boundless generosity. Known for her God-loving spirit and self-sacrificing nature, she consistently put others before herself and made a lasting impact on all who knew her. Tracy was a long-time sponsor through Compassion International, and her numerous mission trips to visit sponsored children demonstrated her dedication to sharing God's love.

Tracy loved to travel, camp, and fish, with her greatest joy coming from moments spent with her family. Her adventurous spirit and strong family bonds were central to her life.

She is survived by her husband of 17 years, Tyson J. Lee; her daughter, Victoria E. Lee; her brothers, Mike Carter (and wife Kelly) and Russell Boudreaux (and wife Penny); and special friends Weldon and Judy Harris. Tracy is preceded in death by her parents, Burton J. and Shirley M. Boudreaux; her son, Christopher E. Lee; and her brother, Steven Carter.

Visitation will be held at Seale Funeral Home, 1720 S. Range Ave., Denham Springs, LA 70726, on Wednesday, September 18, 2024, from 5 p.m. to 8 p.m., and Thursday, September 19, 2024, from 9 a.m. to 11 a.m., followed by funeral services.

Tracy's life will be honored as she is remembered for her loving heart and spirited generosity.
