

Francis “Nels” Anderson

Francis “Nels” Anderson, 85, a native of Sterling, Illinois and longtime resident of Baton Rouge, Louisiana, passed away Thursday, January 9, 2025 at his home. He was Professor of Theatre Arts at LSU and loved working with the students in helping them to become the artist they dreamed of. There will be a Celebration of Life for him Sunday, January 19. The venue is to be determined. Please check back for an update of service information.