

Michael “Mike” Holubar, Jr.

October 23, 1967 – January 15, 2025

It is with deep sadness that we announce the passing of Michael “Mike” Thomas Holubar, Jr., of Port Vincent, Louisiana, on January 15, 2025, at the age of 57. Mike was born on October 23, 1967, in Baton Rouge, Louisiana, and was a proud business owner and motorcycle enthusiast. He was the founder and owner of Outlaw Customs, where his passion for motorcycles and all things mechanical fueled his daily life.

Mike had a love for God and the outdoors, enjoying many hours of hunting and fishing. He also found great joy in firing up the grill to cook delicious burgers for his family, always bringing people together over a good meal. A man of many talents, Mike spent several years working behind the scenes in the movie industry, where his creativity and technical skills were put to good use.

Mike was a devoted husband to Linda Holubar for 28 years, and together they built a life full of love and mutual support. He is also survived by his sister, Jennifer Gary and her husband Roland, and their children; his son, Brandon Holubar; his daughters, Britteny Holubar and Victoria Chapman-Holubar and her wife Kennedy; his mother-in-law, Barbara Emmons; his nephew Freddie Miller and his wife Erica and children; his nephew Kristian Williams and his wife Hayley and children; aunt Sharon Carugi and husband Jimmy; cousins Shannon Spell and Steven Holubar and many other cousins and extended family members who will miss him dearly.

Mike was preceded in death by his beloved mother, Lee Gautreau, father-in-law David Emmons and sister-in-law Jennifer Emmons. He will be remembered by all who knew him for his boundless passion, loyalty, and incredible mechanical talent. He was a man who lived life on his own terms and cherished the people close to him.

Visitation will be held at Seale Funeral Home, Denham Springs, La, Sunday, January 19, from 1 p.m. Until service at 3 p.m.

He will be greatly missed but never forgotten.
