

Norma Eloyce Stewart

Norma Eloyce Stewart, 86, passed away peacefully on February 24, 2025, surrounded by her loved ones. Norma, also known as Eloyce, was known for her warmth, strength, and vibrant spirit. She deeply impacted the lives of all who knew her.

For many years, she co-owned and operated Americana Florist with her sister, Carolyn Findley. This beloved floral shop was famous for not only its stunning floral arrangements but also for its collection of Native American items, which celebrated and honored their heritage. Norma's commitment to her craft and her passion for showcasing Native artistry brought joy to many and made special occasions unforgettable.

Beyond her career as a florist, Norma was an enthusiastic participant in pow wows, where she celebrated her culture and shared her love for traditional practices with family and friends. Her lively personality and infectious laughter touched everyone she met.

Norma was preceded in death by her parents, Jessie Floyd Conerly and Bessie Lorene Miller Conerly, her husband Jimmie Louis Stewart, and her sister Carolyn Louise Findley.

She is survived by her five children: Stephen, Lori, Patrick, Donald (Melissa), and Elizabeth Stewart; her niece, Judi (Bruce) Price; grandchildren James (Rhianna), John, Ryan (Nikki), LaLaine (Abraham), Breanne (Jason), Kaylea (Beau), Alyssa, Landon, Cameron, Brileigh, Brooklynn, and Brennon; great nephews Joshua (Emily) and Jesse (Katie) Price; and 18 great-grandchildren, along with a great niece and nephew.

A memorial service will be held on Friday, March 7th, from 12 pm to 2 pm at Seale Funeral Home.

Norma Eloyce Stewart's life was a testament to love, strength, and community. She will be remembered fondly and deeply missed by all who had the privilege of knowing her.
