

James W “Butch” Leteff

Mr. James W “Butch” Leteff, 59 passed away On June the 8th. 2025 at his home in Denham springs. Mr. Butch was born in Baton Rouge On August 16th, 1965. The Angel hunter has now gone to the great hunting grounds in the sky.

Mr. Butch never met a stranger; he was always friends with everyone. You would catch him in his free time hunting and fishing, spending time with his loving wife of 40 years Janet. Mr. Butch also loves spending time with his two daughters, Heather and Jamie. He enjoyed spending time with his grandchildren, Avery and Mason, and his son-in-law, Adam. He enjoyed hunting white tailed deer, turkeys, rabbits and many other furry friends. He enjoyed spending time at his fishing camp in Bayou Pigeon, LA. Where he taught his grandchildren how to fish. He had many friends that he treated just like family who were very special to his heart. Mr. Butch is also a graduate of Denham Springs High School. He spent his early years in carpentry and construction, working in Alpharetta., GA. He made many special friends and relationships living in Georgia at that time that carried on into his life. After coming home To Louisiana years later. He went back to working in a welding shop as the Tool Man. When he made any friends and gave them their own nickname.

Mr. Butch is preceded in death by his grandfather Bill Wall, grandmother Edna Wall, Father Hermon Leteff and Mother Brenda Wall Lopez and his son Waylon James Leteff and sister Debbie Leteff. He is survived by his loving and caring wife. Janet Leteff, daughters Jamie Leteff and Heather Gaspard, her husband, Adam Gaspard, Avery Gaspard and Mason Gaspard. He also survived his siblings, Bonita Leteff Conrad, Donna Forbs, her husband Rockey Forbs, Herman Leteff JR and Kim Leteff, Tammy Leteff. Along with many nieces and nephews. Mr. Butch, many friends that he treated like family, he will be greatly missed by all who knew him.

A memorial service will be held on June 14th with visitation from 10:00 AM to 1:00 PM and memorial beginning at 1:00 PM at Seale Funeral Home in Denham Springs, LA.

Mr. Butches willingness to fight, his kind heart, his wonderful words of wisdom, Will never be forgotten.