Those who knew Rocky will remember him as a man who never settled for ordinary. Rocky was a true original and he lived on his own terms with an adventurous heart and boundless curiosity that led him down many fascinating paths. Rocky was drawn to the outdoors, finding solace and inspiration in embracing nature. Often he could be found down by the nearest pond, stream, canal or river with a fishing pole in his hand. His passion for fishing was infectious, and he loved sharing his discoveries and catches with others. Rocky's love for animals and his passion for helping others, his commitment to spreading love and kindness to everyone he encountered. He touched the lives of many with his profound sense of humor, quick wit, warmth, creativity and gregarious, outgoing nature. Rocky was prepared to go to whatever spirit land the Good Lord holds for him. Let Rocky's memory be a blessing and remind us that, we too can live a life of generosity, love and compassion, let his spirit and adventure continue in all of us!
